

Saint Martin Luther's Birthday is November 10

This exposé is under construction

Every nation (especially Germany) should make the birthday of Saint Martin Luther a NATIONAL HOLIDAY because he saved the entire world from the unholy Roman empire . . . and the Spanish Inquisition!!

Click to enlarge

The Great Christian Reformer was born in Eisleben, Germany, on November 10, 1483.

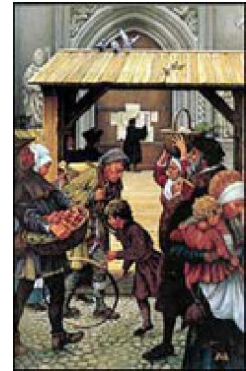

Saint Martin Luther .
(Nov. 10, 1483- Feb.
18, 1546).

Saxon monk Martin Luther was 34 years old when he posted his 95 Theses on the church door in Wittenberg, Germany.

The Theses were in medieval Latin—a language only understood by scholars and the clergy of the Latin Church.

Sympathetic friends translated his Theses into German, and thanks to the newly invented printing press, they were all over Europe in a month!!

October 31, 1517.

Thanks to the recent invention of printing using movable type, the Theses traveled even as far as Jerusalem in one month.

The 2 reasons why the Reformation started in Germany

Boniface (672-754) is called the Apostle of Germany and their patron saint....Nothing could be further from the truth.... Boniface was sent by Rome to stop the Hibernian missionaries who were swarming all over western Europe with the good news of the Gospel.

The blessed Reformation could have started in any of the Latin Church controlled countries of western Europe. Italy was the prime candidate under the preaching of the great Reformer Girolamo Savanorola. Unfortunately for Italy, Savanorola was burned at the stake by the order of Pope Alexander VI.

There were 2 mains reason why the blessed Reformation began in Germany:

1. The unholy Roman empire or First Reich started in Germany.
2. Printing from movable type was invented in Germany.

Germany was chosen by the Almighty because it was the mainstay of the Vatican's temporal power since the year 800.

Printing from movable type was also invented in Germany and this would ensure the rapid dissemination of the Word of God.

Pope Leo III. Pope from 795 to 816.

Pope Leo III was almost killed by a Roman mob for fornication and perjury.

Charlemagne (Charles the "Great") was a roughneck soldier who killed hundreds of thousands of Saxons who refused to convert to the Latin Church.

In 800 A.D., Pope Leo III crowned Charlemagne emperor of the Romans.

Germany was never part of the old Roman Empire so this new entity was neither Roman . . . nor holy!!

Roman mosaic showing a bearded St. Peter giving a pallium to Pope Leo III and a banner to Charlemagne.

Charlemagne (747-813) was completely ruthless and power hungry. In order to be sole ruler of the Franks, he poisoned his own brother, Carloman.

Empress Irene (753-803) was the only female to ever rule at Constantinople. She was the Eastern empire's equivalent to Pope Joan.

Charlemagne reigned as king of the Franks from 768 to 800, and as unholy Roman emperor from 800 to 813.

The "almost" happy couple of Charles and Irene!!

In a desperate attempt to annex the Eastern empire to Rome, Pope Leo proposed a marriage between the new Emperor Charlemagne and Empress Irene.

If Pope Leo was allowed to marry, he could have reunited the Roman Empire by marrying Empress Irene . . . and there would be no need for another emperor in the West!!

Gold solidus of Empress Irene. Her very brief reign lasted from 797 to 802.

With Empress Irene on the throne at Constantinople, this was a golden opportunity for Pope Leo to unite both halves of the Empire by throwing off the "Vicar of Christ" disguise and marrying Irene.

This strange anomaly led to the existence of 3 Roman emperors. The 3 emperors were:

1. The Eastern emperors at Constantinople.
2. The Emperor-Popes at Rome.
3. The unholy Roman emperors of the German nation.

This move by the Vatican to create another Roman emperor was a disastrous decision. A current analogy would be if the United States had 2 rival Presidents.

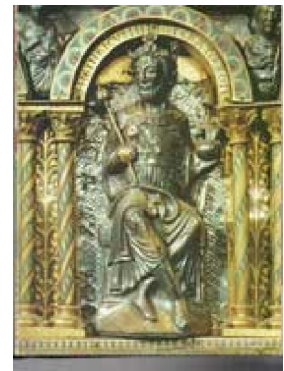

Pope Gregory VII. Pope from 1073 to 1085.

Creating a second emperor in the West was disastrous for the Vatican.

These emperors wanted to appoint the clergy and to rule supreme like the Eastern emperors.

This led to centuries of conflict; the most infamous being the case of Emperor Henry IV who was forced to wait 3 days, in the bitter cold, outside the castle of Canossa in Italy.

Emperor Henry IV. Reigned as emperor from 1084 to 1105.

As penance for defying Pope Gregory VII, Emperor Henry IV was forced to wait 3 days outside the castle of Canossa, in the bitter cold, before the Pope graciously forgave him and lifted the excommunication.

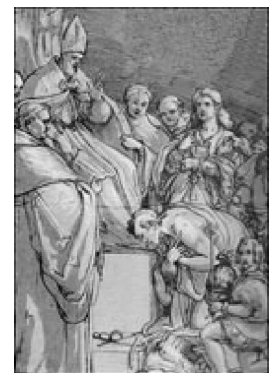

Emperor Henry as penitent outside Canossa castle.

Emperor Henry IV believed that the civil power should be paramount in his empire.

He defied the Pope in what became known as the Investiture Controversy.

Eventually, he groveled at the Pope's feet and asked for forgiveness.

Emperor Henry bowing before Pope Gregory VII.

There was not enough room in the world for 3 "Roman" emperors....Both Pope Leo and Charlemagne were actually made "saints" by the Latin Church .....Charlemagne is the patron "saint" of soldiers.

When Saint Martin was excommunicated by Pope Leo X and given 60 days to appear at Rome, Luther appealed to Emperor Charles V.

Emperor Charles V
(1500-1558).
Unholy Roman
Emperor from 1519
to 1556.

in 1521, Emperor Charles V was the most powerful man in the world due to the discovery of the New World by John Cabot.

Luther appealed to him because he knew he would get no justice at Rome.

Saint Martin Luther defending his writings before the Emperor Charles V at the Diet of Worms in 1521.

The emperor did not immediately condemn Luther because many of the German Electors were favorable to the Reformation. However, the emperor did not lift the ban on Luther for fear of offending the Pope. Luther—a man of peace—would never allow his followers to fight for him. He was able to escape the wrath of the emperor and Pope by trusting his soul to Jesus—the Great ruler of the nations.

The printing press was God's gift to Saint Martin Luther!!

In 1450, Johannes Gutenberg invented printing from movable type....This was one of the greatest inventions in the history of the world.

Johannes Gutenberg
(1398-1468).

Wittenberg was the printing capital of the world for at least 50 years after the beginning of the Reformation.

Saint Martin's press threw OCEANS of ink at the devil.

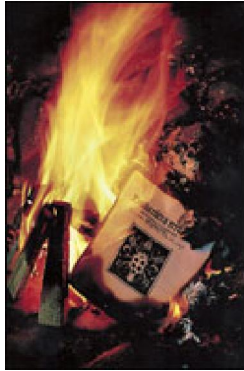

Luther's Wittenberg press.

Thanks to the newly invented printing press, the 95 Theses were all over Europe in the short space of a month.s

Rome was officially excommunicated on December 10, 1520.

The Vatican was officially excommunicated from the pale of Christendom on December 10, 1520....After Saint Martin made heroic efforts to get her to repent and return to Apostolic Christianity, she answered defiantly with a Papal Bull demanding that he appear in Rome within 60 days to answer to the charge of "heresy." He knew that if he went to Rome . . . he would have been POISONED . . . or BURNED ALIVE!!

Saint Martin answered the challenge by officially excommunicating the Latin kingdom from Christ's Congregation forever:

Flames devour the Papal Bull.

Rome was OFFICIALLY EXCOMMUNICATED from Christ's Congregation by the burning of the Papal Bull on December 10, 1520.

Saint Martin officially designated Rome Babylon, and warned the people that they cannot be saved unless they obey the Lord and come out of her. (Rev 18:4).

Saint Martin burns the Bull Exsurge Domine.

Instead of Saint Martin going up in flames, the Papal Bull Exsurge Domine, the Decretals of Clement VI, the Summa Angelica, the Chrysposus of Dr. Eck etc., etc., went up in flames....Thus commenced the burning of Babylon which will continue to the end of the world.

Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning,

Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come. (Revelation 18:8-10).

Pope Alexander VI had just "donated" the entire world to the Spanish Inquisition!!

Just prior to the commencement of the blessed Reformation, the great rival of Christ, Pope Alexander VI, "donated" the ENTIRE WORLD to the Spanish Inquisition.

Pope Alexander VI (1492-1503).

In this medal, found by Sir Francis Drake in the West Indies, we see the horse of King Philip II treading the entire world underfoot, with the inscription in Latin: NON SUFFICIT ORBIS.

It was symbolic of Spanish claims to hegemony over the entire world.

This was no idle boast with the Spanish monopoly of the unlimited riches of the New World.

The world was not enough for the Spanish Inquisition!!

When the fake "Discoverer" Christopher Columbus arrived back in Spain from visiting the New World, Pope Alexander VI "donated" the entire continent to Spain, and strictly warned ALL others not to even THINK about going there without a licence from Ferdinand and Isabella . . . and their successors:

Furthermore, under penalty of excommunication late sententie to be incurred ipso facto, should anyone thus contravene, we strictly forbid all persons of whatsoever rank, even imperial and royal, or of whatsoever estate, degree, order, or condition, to dare, without your special permit or that of your aforesaid heirs and successors, to go for the purpose of trade or any other reason to the islands or mainlands, found and to be found, discovered and to be discovered, towards the west and south, by drawing and establishing a line from the Arctic pole to the Antarctic pole, no matter whether the mainlands and islands, found and to be found, lie in the direction of India or toward any other quarter whatsoever, the said line to be distant one hundred leagues towards the west and south, as is aforesaid, from any of the islands commonly known as the Azores and Cape Verde; apostolic constitutions and ordinances and other decrees whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding. (Inter Caetera Bull ).

4 months later, in a move of gigantic audacity, Pope Alexander VI "donated" the entire world to Spain:

But since it may happen that your envoys and captains, or vassals, while voyaging toward the west or south, might bring their ships to land in eastern regions and there discover islands and mainlands that belonged or belong to India, with the desire moreover to bestow gracious favors upon you, through our similar accord, knowledge, and fullness of power, by apostolic authority and by tenor of these presents, in all and through all, just as if in the aforesaid letters full and express mention had been made thereof, we do in like manner amplify and extend our aforesaid gift, grant, assignment, and letters, with all and singular the clauses contained in the said letters, to all islands and mainlands whatsoever, found and to be found, discovered and to be discovered, that are or may be or may seem to be in the route of navigation or travel toward the west or south, whether they be in western parts, or in the regions of the south and east and of India. (Dudum Siquidem Bull).

Thank God that Protestant England and heroic Holland ignored that global papal usurpation by establishing colonies around the world.

The Fall of the Papal States was another great result of the Reformation

Before 1870, the city of Rome and vast surrounding territories were misruled by the Papal dynasty for over 1000 years.

Papal States in 1796.

The Pope was absolute monarch of the Papal States.

The States were run by PRIESTS and POLICE and flying the United States flag could get you a long prison sentence!!

Papal States in 1860.

In July of 1870, Pope Pius IX declared himself infallible; in August of 1870, Napoleon III declared war on Prussia. The French troops of Napoleon III who were garrisoning the city of Rome had to be withdrawn, and the Italian patriots rushed in and declared Rome the capital of a united Italy. Italy was united again as one country for the first time in over 1000 years.

Duke Albrecht or Albert of Prussia (1490-1568).

The kingdom of Prussia, which won such an astonishing victory over the French armies, was founded by Albrecht von Hohenzollern, Grand Master of the Teutonic Order.

Italian troops entered Porta Pia on Sept. 20, 1870.

Duke Albert was won to the true Faith by Saint Martin Luther in 1525.

This Prussian victory brought about the final unification of the German Empire under King William I of Prussia. It also marked the downfall of Napoleon III and the end of the French Second Empire, which was replaced by the Third Republic. As part of the settlement, the territory of Alsace-Lorraine was taken over by Germany, which would retain it until World War I.

Popes Pius IX & Leo XIII condemned the loss of the Papal States!!

Pope Pius IX, anticipating the loss of the Papal States, emphatically condemned their loss BEFOREHAND in his Syllabus of Errors:

76. The abolition of the temporal power of which the Apostolic See is possessed would contribute in the greatest degree to the liberty and prosperity of the Church. —Allocutions "Quibus quantisque," April 20, 1849, "Si semper antea," May 20, 1850. (Condemned as error).

In the 20th century, Pope XIII reaffirmed the teaching of the Syllabus of Errors:

Wherefore, that We may above all things, and in every possible way, maintain the rights and freedom of this Holy See, We shall never cease to strive that Our authority may meet with due deference; that obstacles may be removed which hamper the free exercise of Our ministry and that we may be restored to that condition of things in which the design of God's wisdom had long ago placed the Roman Pontiffs. We are moved to demand this restoration, Venerable Brethren, not by any feeling of ambition or desire of supremacy, but by the nature of Our office and by Our sacred promise confirmed on oath; and further, not only because this sovereignty is essential to protect and preserve the full liberty of the spiritual power but also because it is an ascertained fact that, when the temporal sovereignty of the Apostolic See is in question, the cause of the public good and the well-being of all human society in general are also at stake. Hence We cannot omit, in the discharge of Our duty, which obliges us to guard the rights of Holy Church, to renew and confirm in every particular by this Our Letter those declarations and protests which Pius IX., of sacred memory, Our predecessor, on many and repeated occasions published against the seizing of the civil sovereignty and the infringement of rights belonging to the Roman Church. (Great Encyclical Letters of Pope Leo XIII, p. 15).

The TIARA represents the temporal power of the Pope!!

The triple crown or TIARA that the Pope still wears represents the temporal power . . . and is as vital to the Latin kingdom as the Papacy itself!!

Vatican City flag.

The triple crown or TIARA represents the 3 kingdoms that were plucked up by the roots or totally exterminated to make way for the Papal States.

The papacy is totally dependent on Germany and the Pentagon to restore the lost States!!

Pope Benedict XVI.

The 3 kingdoms that were uprooted from central Italy to make way for the temporal power were:

1. The Vandals were destroyed by general Belisarius. (Circa 533 A.D.).
2. The Ostrogoths were destroyed by general Belisarius. (Circa 545 A.D.).
3. The Lombards were uprooted by Charlemagne. (Circa 774 A.D.).

These wars lasted for CENTURIES and oceans of blood were shed to obtain the temporal power....This was the fulfillment of the rise of the LITTLE HORN found in Daniel chapter 7:

I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things. (Daniel 7:8).

And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows. (Daniel 7:20).

The First Reich was greatly weakened by the 30 Years' War and finally abolished by Napoleon Bonaparte in 1806.

The Second Reich under Kaiser William II lasted from 1871 to the end of World War I.

The Third Reich under Adolf Hitler lasted from 1933 to 1945.

The Vatican is desperate to establish a FOURTH Reich!!

With time running out, the Vatican is desperate to establish a FOURTH Reich modeled after the brutal and bloody Second and Third Reichs....Her motto is: THIRD time lucky!

The First Reich was greatly weakened by the 30 Years' War and finally abolished by Napoleon Bonaparte in 1806.

The Second Reich under Kaiser William II lasted from 1871 to the end of World War I.

The Third Reich under Adolf Hitler lasted from 1933 to 1945.

Kaiser William II
(1859-1941).
Reigned from 1888
to 1918.

Kaiser William II ruled Germany during the last 30 years of the Second Reich.

Adolf Hitler ruled Germany during the Third Reich from 1933 to 1945.

Adolf Hitler (1889-1945).
Führer from 1933 to 1945.

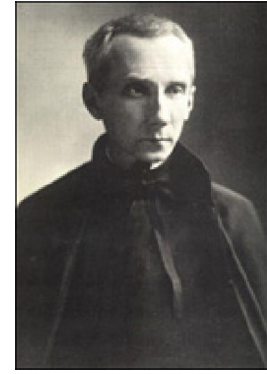

All the White and Black Popes who ruled during the World Wars were all fanatically pro-German.

Pope Benedict XV (1854 to 1922).
White Pope from 1914 to 1922.

Pope Benedict was called the Boche Pope for his support of the Second Reich.

General Ledochowski was a fanatical supporter of World War I Kaiser William II.

Włodimir Ledochowski (1861-1942).
Black Pope from 1915 to 1942.

Pope Benedict's predecessor, Pope Pius X, died suddenly on the eve of World War I. Ledochowski got the cup of Borgia in 1942 because imperious Pope Pius XII was every inch a Roman emperor and took orders from nobody. It wasn't until 1946 that he was forced to share his throne with a Black Pope.

Eugenio Pacelli (1876-1958).
White Pope from 1939 to 1958.

Pope Pius XII was the Third Reich Pope.

in 1958, he got the cup of Borgia to make way for an ecumenical Pope.

Whatever the nationality of the Last Pope, he will have to be fanatically pro-German like Pope Benedict XV and Pope Pius XII.

Pope Pius XII was a fanatical supporter of Adolf Hitler's Third Reich.

Finding a Führer who has the hubris to rule the world . . . yet humble enough to take orders from the Vatican . . . will be a very, very difficult job indeed!!
